

SIMCHAT SHMUEL

BY RABBI SAM SHOR
DIRECTOR, TORAH INITIATIVES,
OU ISRAEL

As we conclude this year's reading of Sefer Breisheet this Shabbat, I feel my heart and thoughts being drawn to the beautiful introduction to Sefer Breisheet penned by the Netziv, Rabbi Naftali Zvi Yehuda Berlin zt'l.

The Netziv wrote that our Sages referred to Sefer Breisheet as Sefer Yesharim- the book of the ethical ones, the book of the "mentsches." The Netziv explains that our Avot and Imahot are indeed considered to be yesharim- ethical and morally straight individuals.

" This is a great praise for the Avot (and Imahot)- that beyond their righteousness and holiness and devotion and love for Hashem, we could describe them even more so that they were yesharim- they dealt fairly and treated all humanity with love, dignity and respect, as each and every human being is one of Hashem's creations...."

Rabbi Yosef Breuer, zt"l, the grandson of Rav Shimshon Refael Hirsch zt'l, and founding Rabbi of the Khal Adath Jeshurun in Washington Heights, New York, famously wrote these words about the moral code that a Jew must strive to adhere to:

"Kosher" is intimately related to "Yoshor." God's Torah not only demands the observance of Kashruth and the sanctification of our physical enjoyment; it also insists on the sanctification of our social relationships. This requires the strict application of the tenets of justice and righteousness which avoid even the slightest trace of dishonesty in our business dealings and personal life. God's Torah not only demands of us to love our neighbor in that we concern ourselves with his welfare and property, but it insists further on a conduct of uncompromising straightness ("Yoshor") which is inspired not only by the letter of the law but is guided by the ethical principle of honesty which, then, would deserve the honorable title of "Yeshurun."

The Netivot Shalom, the Slonimer Rebbe zy'a, asks an interesting question. If indeed this entire first book of the Torah, is considered to be the book of Yesharim- why does it include the very real human stories, and family dynamics and personal struggles of the Avot and Imahot, what value or message are we meant to gain or glean from these detailed accounts?

The Slonimer Rebbe explains that in order for one to truly become a yashar- a truly fair, just, ethical human being, we must constantly work to refine our character. This first sefer of the Torah, which recalls the earliest giants of humanity and Am Yisrael, presents us with the most fundamental blueprint to living a life of Kedusha, the refinement of character, growth and spiritual maturation that each of us must strive for, to emulate our Avot and Imahot and truly become yesharim.

Indeed the saintly and revered Rosh Yeshiva of Yeshivat Mir in Yerushalayim, Rav Chaim Shmuelevitz ztvk'l taught (Sichot Musar, p. 347), "Yashrut is the most important attribute amongst all others, and all other character refinement is dependent upon it..."

Similarly, Rav Yehuda Amital ztvk'l, the beloved founding Rosh Yeshiva of Yeshivat Har Etzion frequently spoke and taught about the concepts of yashrut and mentschlichkeit. Rav Amital would refer to the phrase we recite each morning, which introduces the recitation of korbanot: "Le-olam yehei adam yirei shamayim," "A person should always be God-fearing." Rav Amital would explain this phrase as so: "Le-olam, yeheh adam," "One should always be a person" that is, first one must be a mensch; afterwards, one can fear God.

Yehi Ratzon, as we bid farewell for now to Sefer Breisheet, may each of us continue to be inspired by the legacy of our Avot and Imahot, and may we strive each and everyday to emulate their conduct, and live a life of Yashrut and mentschlichkeit. ■
